Beau - ti - fully fly - ing up the wind - ing trail. But

C G

I think it likes my fluf - fy lit - tle tail!

G D

Wow! and now, would you look at that view from here!

A thous - and miles, and there's a spark - ling stream. The

C G

Hap-pi - ly gli - ding, oh, what a might-y fine thing! (remorseful groan)

G D

My, I think I've wan-dered from the fold a - gain.

C G

From the Good Shep-herd Who I love the most.

G D

Oh, He must be sad for me a - gain. So I'll cry for Him, cry the on - ly way I know!

C G

G G Dsus Dsus C C G G

Oh

C G

lit - tle bit scar - y a - lone in the dark, you see.

G D

Ah! What's that? I think I hear some - thing wrong.

C G

It's some - thing com - ing. Oh, what could it be?

G G Dsus Dsus C C G G

But

G D

Ah! It's the Good Shep - herd back for me!

C G

Sor - ry I wan - dered. A but - ter - fly! A tree! But

G D

He took me, and warmed me in His coat.

C G

He was so hap - py, He did a lit - tle jig with me!

G D

Back we skipped down to the fold a - gain.

C G

I was em - bar - rassed, so He his me in His arms.

G D

He let me sleep in the house that night;

C G

down by the fire - side, oh, so co - zy and warm. Now

G D

I don't know, but I think I'm the hap - pi - est lamb;

C G

though I'm dis - trac - ted and eas - il - y give in. 'Cause

G D

my Good Shep - herd's al - ways there for me, wait - ing for me to jump in His arms a - gain.

C G

C G

Wait - ing for me to jump in His arms a - gain.
